

Invitation to Course in Equine Myofascial Kinetic Lines

Course in Equine Myofascial Kinetic Lines

Anatomy, Function, Test and Treatment for Veterinarians and Physiotherapist

By

Rikke Schultz DVM and Tove Due DVM

The importance of fascia being related to biomechanics of the individual has become more and more evident. The knowledge you gain in this course can easily be implanted in your practice and provides you with an additional and exceptional tool for a holistic approach in your biomechanical work.

This three-day course offers an opportunity to learn about fascia in general from the newest research and specifically related to the Equine Myofascial Kinetic Lines. We present the Anatomy, the function of the lines, how to test them as well as treatment options in theory and in practice.

Place: Kringholmsvej 10, 2670 Greve

Time: march 3. to march 5. 2023

Program:

Friday march 3.: 10 to 17: Theory

Saturday march 4.: 9 to 16: Theory and practice

Sunday march 5.: 9 to 15: Theory and practice

Language: English (Danish if only Danes attend)

Included: Breakfast included on Friday. Lunch, coffee, the and snacks are included all three days.

Price: 7.500 DK kr + VAT or 1000 EURO + VAT max. 20 participants.

Payment: www.fascialines.com

Refund politics:

Cancellation until 30 days prior to the course: Withdrawal of 750 DK kr. or 100 EURO for administration.

Cancellation later than 14 days prior to the course: We charge 2.200 DK kr. or 300 EURO

Cancellation later than one week prior to the course: no refund.

Contact: Tove Due for further information, info@tovedue.dk